

Mrs Chandni Raina is an expert on intellectual property rights. Prior to joining the Centre, she worked the Director in the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Government of India looking after Intellectual Property Rights where she was very intensively involved in bilateral, multilateral and plurilateral negotiations on IPR. Besides this, the legislative, policy and administrative matters in respect of the Patent Act 1970, Trademark Act, 1999, Designs Act, 2000 and the Geographical Indications Act, 1999 were important areas of her work.

As the officer looking after the establishment and plan schemes of the Office of the Controller General of Patents, Designs and Trademarks, she was responsible for implementing the plan scheme and in preparing and implementing the new proposals for strengthening of the office.

The major areas where she contributed included the Amendment of Trade Marks Act, 1999 to enable Accession to the Madrid protocol. Handling cases pertaining to Section 66 of the Patent Act, applications for compulsory license under section 92 of the Patent Act, preparation of the documents to aide Government of India's submissions in the Novartis Vs Union of India case as also in other disputes, negotiating texts of the International Legal Instruments on Protection of Traditional Knowledge, Genetic resources and Traditional Cultural Expressions in the World Intellectual Property Organization were her other important responsibilities. She was also one of the three facilitators appointed by the Inter Governmental Committee on Traditional Knowledge, Traditional Cultural Expressions and Genetic Resources of WIPO for the negotiations on Genetic Resources.

While as Director in the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, she represented India as a key speaker in the discussion on the implications of Anti Counterfeiting Trading Agreement (ACTA) in the Global Conference on Counterfeiting and Piracy held in Paris in 2010. Besides this she has contributed extensively in the Discussion papers on the Utility Models and on the Restructuring of the Intellectual Property Offices.

Mrs Chandni Raina belongs to the Indian Economic Service.