

MUKESH BHATNAGAR

Mr. Mukesh Bhatnagar is Professor at the Centre for WTO Studies, Indian Institute of Foreign Trade (IIFT) since July, 2013. He handles capacity building programmes for Indian officials and for officials/ diplomats from developing countries on WTO issues under the ITEC Programme of Ministry of External Affairs, Government of India. He has more than 30 years experience of handling trade related issues in Department of Commerce, Government of India particularly related to export promotion, trade remedies viz. Anti dumping duty, Countervailing duty and Safeguard duty, WTO disputes and multilateral negotiations in WTO. He worked in the Directorate General of Anti-Dumping and Allied Duties (DGAD) from 2001 to 2006 and handled Anti-dumping investigations. Thereafter he worked in Trade Policy Division of Department of Commerce, Government of India from 2007 to 2012 where he handled trade policy matters including multilateral negotiations in WTO on Rules negotiations in the WTO under the Doha Round, bilateral FTAs with Japan, Korea, ASEAN, Malaysia, EFTA and EU in the area of Trade Remedies and Dispute Settlement. He superannuated as Additional Director General of Foreign Trade from Government of India in 2013. While working in the Centre for WTO Studies he is actively involved in the fisheries subsidies negotiations in WTO. He did B.Com (Hons.) from Delhi University and MBA from University of Hull, UK.