

CALL FOR PAPERS

Centre for WTO Studies

Indian Institute of Foreign Trade

(An organisation under Ministry of Commerce, GoI)

B-21, Qutab Institutional Area, New Delhi - 110016

5th International Conference on

WTO, TRADE AND AGRICULTURE: ISSUES AND CHALLENGES FOR DEVELOPING AND LEAST DEVELOPED COUNTRIES

20-21 October 2016, New Delhi

This conference offers a podium for scholarly conversation among academia and policymakers on the impact of trade policy issues on Indian agriculture.

Papers - theoretical, empirical or case study - are invited on broad themes including (1) WTO and agriculture (2) Food security and trade (3) Issues related to agriculture market access (4) Agricultural subsidies and International trade (5) Free trade agreements and agriculture (6) Responsible Investment in agriculture (7) Crop Insurance and Income support in agriculture (8) Challenges and likely impact of Direct Benefit Transfer of subsidies and agriculture sector (9) Issue of price support to agriculture in different countries

Important Dates

Extended abstract submission	20 July 2016
Intimation of abstracts acceptance	31 July 2016
Full paper submission	20 September 2016

Submission Guidelines:

The extended abstract should not be less than 1000 words. The concept note, submission guidelines and other details are available on the website <http://wtocentre.iift.ac.in/>. Selected papers will be published as an edited book. There is no registration fee for this conference. Accommodation will be provided to the participants. In case of joint authorship papers, accommodation will be provided to one of the authors of selected paper. Train/Air tickets upto Rs 10,000 will be reimbursed subject to submission of tickets. Please make all your submissions to sksharma@iift.edu

For any assistance or query, please contact:

Dr. Sachin Kumar Sharma

Assistant Professor (Agriculture)

Centre for WTO Studies, Indian Institute of Foreign Trade,

Phone: 011- 26853952; Email: sksharma@iift.edu