

Workshop on Trade, Investment and Regional Integration: Lessons for Policymakers

The Asia-Pacific Research and Training Network on Trade (ARTNeT) is an open regional network of research and academic institutions specializing in international trade policy and facilitation issues including members from the developing countries of East, South, and Southeast Asia and the Pacific and the core network partners (IDRC, UNCTAD, UNDP, ESCAP and the WTO).

Centre for WTO Studies is a member of ARTNet and in association with the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India; ARTNeT and the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (ESCAP), Research and Information System for Developing Countries (RIS) and the Indian Council of Research on International Economic Relations (ICRIER) is organising a Workshop on Trade, Investment and Regional Integration: Lessons for Policymakers in New Delhi on 11-12 March 2010.

The workshop is aimed at introducing ARTNeT and its work to relevant policymakers, the academic circle and observers, and other potential partners and stakeholders in India and the region and also at disseminating the most recent research completed by researchers affiliated with ARTNeT members to policymakers and relevant stakeholders in India seeking their feedback. It is further intended to provide a forum for information exchanges on trade, investment, regional integration and trade facilitation policies amongst relevant state and non-state actors in India and gather inputs for the studies that the ARTNeT secretariat and members are currently carrying out on the themes of 'Trade, investment and related domestic policies coherence for inclusive and sustainable development'.

The workshop will be held at the Conference Hall (2nd Floor), IIFT, B-21, Qutab Institutional Area, New Delhi-110016, India.

Interested persons are requested to convey their willingness to participate with details of participation to be conveyed positively by 9th March 2010 to:
