Professional Bio

Tina Neogi is a Young Professional at the Centre for WTO Studies, where she provides research and policy support to the Department of Commerce, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India, on international trade and WTO-related matters.

She has worked extensively with the Multilateral Trade Negotiations Wing of the Department of Commerce, contributing to India's engagement in multilateral trade matters. Her work has included supporting India's preparations for the 13th and 14th WTO Ministerial Conferences (MC13 and MC14) as well as contributing to India's 8th Trade Policy Review (TPR) at the WTO. She works on trade facilitation and also supports India's FTA negotiations with New Zealand, the United States, the Eurasian Economic Union (EAEU), Israel, and the ASEAN-India Trade in Goods Agreement (AITIGA) Review. Her areas of work include trade policy analysis, negotiation support, and research on international trade issues.

Tina holds an M.Sc. in Economics from Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics, Pune, and a B.A. from Jesus and Mary College, University of Delhi.
