

Professional Bio

Shaivy Maheshwari is a Young Professional (Legal) at the Centre for WTO Studies (CWS), where she assists the Department of Commerce, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India. She holds a B.A. LL.B. from Symbiosis Law School, Noida, and an LL.M. in International Trade and Business Laws from NALSAR University of Law, Hyderabad. She has also qualified the UGC-NET examination.

Before joining CWS, Shaivy worked at the Centre for Civil Society, a leading public policy think tank. There, she co-authored the first-of-its-kind Regulatory Compliance Index, which compares regulatory compliance requirements across more than 200 state education laws. She also peer-reviewed several institutional publications of the Centre.

Her research interests include digital trade, trade and sustainability, and trade in services. She regularly works on issues related to trade in services and international trade policy.